E. B. BRUNDAGE DIES

FORMER EDITOR PASSES AWAY.

After an Illness Extending Over Several Months. Had Been in Newspaper Business Many Years in This City.

On Friday morning, July 6, 1900, at about four o'clock, Edward B. Brundage departed his life on this earth after a lingering illness extending over a year. The sickness that caused his demise was Bright's disease, and during the past six months he has been confined to the house almost continuously and much of the time to his bed. He is survived by his wife, Emma M., and two children, Dean aged nine, and Dorothy, aged six years.

That the citizens of Grand Rapids and vicinity were pained to hear of the death of Mr. Brundage goes without saying, as his years of newspaper work in this city had made him one of the best known men in this locality. Not only had he become well known but his business methods had been such that whoever came in contact with him became his friend. Being of a quiet, deep-thinking nature, a man with the courage of his convictions, one who was the same each day, his friends once made, were faithful to the end. During the long illness of Mr. Brundage he has been a patient sufferer, and although from the nature of his disease he had known that there was no hope of recovery, he has been cheerful through it all and whenever able has endeavored to cheer his family and friends by his hopeful talk. For many weeks past he has been kept alive by the administration of powerful medicines and has much of the time been in a semi-comatose state with intervals when his brain worked with all the activity of a well man. From the first of his sickness Mr. Brundage has endeavored to settle up his business affairs so that his widow and children would not suffer from any neglect of his, and through his efforts in this line everything has been left in as good shape as possible.

The bereaved family has the sympathy of all in their hour of sorrow and the Tribune unites to extend its condolence.

EDWARD B. BRUNDAGE.

Edward B. Brundage was born in Grand Rapids on the 17th day of May, 1863, and had lived in this city all his life. He was educated in the public schools of this city and in 1881 started in on the Grand Rapids Tribune which at that time was being published by his father, and soon assumed entire control of the paper, buying his father out two years later. In 1887 the Tribune and Enterprise were consolidated. Mr. Brundage forming one in the partnership with E. B. Rossier, who conducted the paper until 1891 when Mr. Rossier withdrew on account of ill health, leaving Mr. Brundage in sole charge. In 1892 Mr. Rossier sold his interest in the paper to W. H. Luehr and the paper was then conducted under the firm name of Luehr & Brundage. Mr. Luehr sold his interest in the paper to John N. Brundage, and the firm name was Brundage Bros. until sold to the present owners last May.

Mr. Brundage was appointed post master in 1894 and served his term of four years in that capacity. He was also alderman and served for many years on the school board. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge also of the Masonic fraternity, in both of which organizations he has held the highest offices.

In 1887 on the 30th of October Mr. Brundage was united in marriage to Miss Mary Emma Miller. Besides Mrs. Brundage and the two children he is survived by his mother, Harriet M. Brundage, Arthur A. and Frank B., of Dawson N. Dak., and John N., of Eureka S. D.

The funeral occurs on Sunday afternoon from the house at 2:30 and the First Congregational church at 3:00 o'clock the Rev. B. J. H. Shaw conducting the services. The Knights of Pythias and Masonic lodges will attend in a body.

Under False Pretenses.

Sheriff M. Vincent returned the first of the week from Sheboygan whither he had gone with a warrant for the arrest of Martin Glines, who was wanted at Babcock for obtaining money under false pretenses. Glines is charged with giving a bill of sale of a cow which he did not own. He had his hearing before Justice J. J. O'Riley at Babcock yesterday and was bound over to appear in circuit court next October. He is now in the county jail awaiting trial.

RECOVERING FROM PARALYSIS.

Wm. H. Sullivan, a Well Known Horseman, Visits Our City.

Wm. H. Sullivan, of Hancock, well known to many of the people of the Wisconsin River Valley as a raiser of blooded horses, was a visitor in the city yesterday. For the past week Mr. Sullivan has been a guest of the Morgan and Stevens families at Nekoosa. It will be remembered that last fall while Mr. Sullivan was on a visit to Nekoosa he suffered a stroke of paralysis of the right side and for ten days was cared for at the home of Mr. Morgan, before taken to his home at Hancock, and his many friends along the valley will be pleased to learn that he is rapidly recovering the use of his limbs. Mr. Sullivan drove up from Hancock with a fine pair of his blooded horses and the writer enjoyed a ride with him about the city for a short time yesterday. Mr. Sullivan informed us that during his invalidism he disposed of most of his blooded stock, and since he has become able to be about again will eventually replenish his stock, as he is too much of a lover of fast horses to go out of the business entirely.

JUST ONE GIRL.

That is What Daly, the Druggist, is Pondering Over.

John E. Daly, the east side druggist not only sells but rents bicycles. On the 22nd day of last month Mr. Daly was approached by a fair young damsel with blonde hair and pearl white teeth who bargained with him for a wheel for a few hours spin about the city. She gave him her name but as he did not put it down in black and white he says it was either Koch or Kopp and the bicycle and the young lady are still missing and Mr. Daly would like some information leading to the recovery of one or both.

Goes to Yellowstone.

Guy Wood leaves on Monday for Stevens Point where he will join a party bound for the Yellowstone National park. This party will go in a special car to St. Paul where a train will be made up to go over the Northern Pacific to Livingston, from which place they will go to Cinnabar which is just on the edge of the park. At Cinnabar the party will go by team through the park, spending twenty-four days in sight seeing, and camping where night overtakes them. They will be provided with guides and a camping outfit and all the paraphernalia that assists in making an outing a success. That the trip will be a pleasant one goes without saying, as the scenery is the finest in the world. The party will be in charge of Prof. Culver, of the Stevens Point normal. Mr. Culver is very familiar with the park, having at one time had charge of the U. S. geological survey in that section.

Doubtful Praise.

We are in receipt of a concise little book entitled The Newspaper Blue Book, published by Theo. Wiese, of Chicago. The volume, besides advertising the business of Mr. Wiese, purports to give the name of the best newspaper in each locality. It is evident that Theo. is behind the times for he hasn't even discovered that the two cities of Grand Rapids and Centralia have been consolidated into one municipality and as a consequence he names both of the papers published in this city as being the best in this locality. Under the circumstances we fail to fully appreciate the favor shown us, but hope that as the years roll by that there will be a time when Theo. will awake to a realization of the enormity of his error and by correcting it relieve the strain under which the nation must have been laboring.

New Bakery.

Aug. Peterick, of Galesville, who recently leased the Leneauette building on the east side arrived in the city the first of the week with his bakery outfit and has been busy the past week getting things in readiness for the opening. The exterior and the interior of the building have been fitted up and present a neat appearance. New plate glass windows have been put in, and the interior painted and a new stairway leading to the upper story. Mr. Peterick expects to open the new bakery some time next week. The second story has been fitted up for living apartments and will be occupied by Mr. Peterick and family.

The Street Work.

The macadamizing of Cranberry street has thus far reached French street and by this time next week it is expected that the work will have reached the Dixon Hotel corner. Along the line where the work of macadamizing has been completed sidewalks have been torn up and preparations are being made to lay new ones. As far as we have been able to learn all walks along this street, at least as far as the Dixon Hotel, will be built of brick. When the work is finished Grand Rapids can boast of as fine a looking business street as has any city along the Wisconsin Valley.

Woodmen Program.

As stated in our last issue, on Sunday, July 8, the Woodmen of the World will unveil two monuments in Forest Hill cemetery. The parade will form in front of Woodmen hall at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and march to the cemetery, where the local lodge will be assisted by outside lodges in the ceremony of unveiling the monuments of John J. Benson and Herbert Naylor, deceased members of the order. Addresses will be made by State Deputy M. D. Nichols and J. W. Cochran, of this city.

THE GLORIOUS 4TH.

HOW IT WAS SPENT IN THIS CITY

A Very Quiet Day in Grand Rapids. Many of our Citizens go to Neighboring Towns.

Last Wednesday was probably as quiet a Fourth as this city has ever experienced. What little noise there was, the small boy furnished with his stock of fire crackers and even the small boy was not as much in evidence as is usual on the nation's holiday.

About one hundred and fifty people went to Nekoosa to spend the day and they seem to have had as good a time down there as anywhere in this vicinity. Fifty people went to Wausau, where there were all kinds of amusement for the public, and then the governor was there and made a short speech. A heavy rain in the evening made it uncomfortable for the excursionists for a time. About one hundred and fifty took advantage of the excursion to Marshfield and spent the day quite enjoyably. A few went to Merrill to attend the gymnastics and bicycle race meet, where there were numerous celebrities to compete for the purses hung up by the projectors of the celebration. Taken altogether there must have been fully five hundred people out of town on that day, and the excessive heat made it uncomfortable for what was left to do much moving about.

The following young people enjoyed an outing and picnic dinner at Maenereher park on the Fourth: Misses Eva Jones, Nellie Ward, Edith Nash, Maude Daly, Vinnie White, Shirley Slocum, Della Menier, Ethel Kelly, Viola Garrison, Maurine Johnson, Lona Johnson, Mabel McCauley, and Messrs. Clarence Searls, Ed. Daly, Robt. Morse, A. W. Bryant, Lee Love, Lawrence Nash, John Belanger, Wilbur Briere, W. F. Fayant, Johnny Jigger, Guy Wood, Frank Steib, Ed. Whitney and Chas. Pomainville.

THE ARPIN LUMBER CO.

Doing Business at Bruce, Wis.—The Following Article is taken from The Chippewa Times.

The magnitude of this concern, and the amount of work it has laid out for the coming summer, is known to but few people outside of this vicinity. The work is in charge of Mr. A. M. Arpin, a young man scarcely twenty-five years of age, but a hustler whose splendid business ability is appreciated by the entire community. He has already the confidence of every person with whom he does business. He is ably assisted by Hon. Thomas J. McGrath, the well-known statesman, and by Hon. J. C. McDevitt, who has charge of the railroad construction and will have about ten miles ready for the iron about the first of June. The heaviest steel is to be laid and no expense is being spared to make the road the best that can possibly be made. The road is destined for a point on Lake Superior and it is believed that it will reach Hayward, in Sawyer county, before snow falls. The mill of the company is located about two miles from Bruce on Level Creek. It will be the largest hardwood mill in Northern Wisconsin. It is a substantial structure and the machinery is of the latest and best that can be found in the market. It will be ready for business about the first of June. About ten acres of land is being cleared in the vicinity of the mill and a town of considerable size will spring up during the summer. The dwellings will be used largely for the families of the men employed in the mill. Mr. Arpin is working at present, in constructing the road, about three hundred men. He is doing his own construction work. There will be employed in the mill and yards about one hundred and fifty men. The mill will be operated winter and summer. The road will pass through a fine belt of hardwood and some pine, and there is sufficient in sight to last the mill about twelve years.

New Catholic Church.

Last fall the members of the Polish Catholic faith bought eight lots near the furniture factory with the intention of erecting a church thereon in the near future. The work of hauling stone for the edifice was begun last week and although no plans have been secured as yet it is expected that the church will be erected this season. Heretofore the Rev. Mr. Miller, of Junction City has been holding services every second Sunday in the town of Sigel, but the establishment of a pastorate here this will be changed somewhat. A priest will be located in this city who will also attend to the Sigel parishioners.

New Clerk at Pittsville.

At the annual school meeting held at Pittsville last Thursday, J. Q. Stevens, the old clerk who has stood by Prof. O. J. Kauffman the removed principal, received only 22 votes, while his opponent, C. E. Fero, received 109. By a similar vote the action of the majority of the board in removing Mr. Kauffman and hiring Mr. Jones as principal was approved, and the board instructed to pay Prof. Jones for past services.

EIGHT LIVES LOST IN TENEMENT FIRE.

Burning of a Crowded Tenement
in Hoboken, N. J. Flames Spread Rapidly.

New York, July 3.—The early day in a crowded tenement, 127 to 131 Adams street, Hoboken, N. J., ended in a tragedy. The flames of the fire took the lives of eight persons.

Joseph N. Smith, 28, and his wife, Anna, 25, were the first to be killed. They were found in the kitchen, which was the first room to be consumed by the flames.

Out of nine children of the Smith family, four were saved. Mrs. Smith, Miss Winkler, and their two children, John, aged 12, and Maria, 14 years.

Mrs. Winkler was badly burned while attempting to save her children. She was found lying on the floor, her body covered in flames.

The building was a frame structure, three stories high and several families lived on each floor. When the flames started, they burned rapidly and the firemen could do little either to extinguish the fire or to save lives.

BOERS FED BY BRITISH.

Lord Roberts Distributing Food and
Other Supplies to Destitute
Boerburgers.

London, July 3.—The following dispatch has been received at the war office from Lord Roberts, dated Pretoria, July 2: "Gen. Hunter's division has crossed the Vaal and should be at Frankfort today, where he will be joined by Col. Malet's brigade from Helbron. Gen. Buller's leading brigade has left Standerton for Graymame."

"Both here and at Johannesburg several families of the men who have been fighting against us are being fed. Some are in a state of destitution. At Helbron, where the food supplies ran out, groceries, meat and other supplies of food are being distributed among the indigent men under the supervision of the local committee. Arrangements are being made for the distribution of oats for seed purposes to farmers actually in need of it, those who are unable to procure seed oats in any other manner."

War Far from Ended.
The Times, in its editorial leader this morning, says:

"It may be inferred from the arrival of the German military attaches at Cape Town that in their view the war is so far over that the military movements are not interesting enough to call for their study."

"At the same time a good deal of light seems still to be left in the Boer commandos, which, though encircled by an immensely superior British force, continue to enjoy freedom of action over a considerable area."

"While that state of things endures it is perhaps too much to expect President Kruger to sue for peace. Indeed, it would seem from the cessation of reports concerning portmanteaus pointing in that direction, which were somewhat rare a short time ago, that the heart has recently been rather hardened than otherwise."

The following dispatch was received this afternoon at the war office from Lord Roberts, dated Pretoria, July 3: "Gen. Hunter reached Frankfort July 1, without opposition, and McDonald joined him there yesterday. He found the men of the Seaforth's and eighteen of the Derby militia in the hospital. They have been well treated by the Boers."

"Methuen reports from Paardekraal on the Helbron-Kransdorp road that he has captured the commander of Devere's scouts, two other prisoners and Andreas Wessels, the head of the Afrikaander bond."

Gen. Smythman Captured.
New York, July 3.—A dispatch from London reports the capture near Lichtenberg of Gen. Smythman, who besieged Mafeking and an important Boer commander.

New York Hotel Man Falls.
New York, July 3.—George D. Smith, manager of the Clarendon hotel, fourth avenue and East Eighteenth street, this city, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States district court today, showing liabilities of $204,847 and no assets.

SAILED ON THE KAISER.

Former Senator Mitchell and Wife
Passengers on the Big Steamer,
Which Escaped the Fire.

New York, July 3.—The blue and white house flag of the North German Lloyd line was flying over the Cunard pier today, when the big Kaiser Wilhelm Der Grosse, the only vessel of the fleet in port to escape the flames of Saturday last, sailed for Bremen. On the vessel, and on all the piers and shipping along the river, the flags were flying at half-mast. The piers were crowded with people who came to see the ship depart.

The steamer sailed at 10 a. m., with cabin and steerage full. In the first cabin there were 421, in the second 329 and in the steerage 200. About 230 sailors and officers of the wrecked vessels were accommodated in the cabin and the members of the crews sailed in the steerage.

On the pier near the entrance were 274 stowage passengers, who were left behind. They could not sail as the steerage was full. They will be taken care of by the line and will sail on other ships as soon as possible.

Lord B. Morton was a passenger on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, which sailed today. With him sailed Mrs. Morton and the Misses Morton. Others who sailed on the vessel were Thomas E. Higgins, United States consul at Odesa, Russia; H. A. Goldberger, Bremen; Joseph, C. and Mrs. E. M. Knox, Port, Rogers; James MacVeach, Mrs. Franklin MacVeach, former Senator and Mrs. John J. Mitchell, Mrs. E. F. Sargent, Prof. S. C. Shaw, Rev. L. E. Shattuck and Garrett F. Stevens.

Eclipse Affected Bicy de Tires.
The solar eclipse proved a rather disastrous for the wheemen of Africa. As in every other city within a visible distance, hundreds of persons viewed the eclipse through bits of smoked glass, and when the sun came forth, they were more anxious for the glass than they were for the bicycle. The result was that the bicycle shops were overrun with orders to repair burst tires.—Baltimore News.

At her own request, made before death the funeral services over the body of Mrs. John H. Haskell were held under the trees in the orchard at the home place in Alden, N. Y. There she had played with her children, she said, and from there she wished to be carried to the grave.

MANY LIVES ARE LOST.

All the Piers of the North-German
Lloyd Company at Hoboken in Ashes.

Loss of the American steamer, the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, which sailed today, was a disaster of the first magnitude. The vessel, which was the largest of the North German Lloyd line, was consumed by the flames of the fire.

New York, July 3.—With a loss of a few more than 200 lives, and the destruction of property valued at more than $100,000,000, the disaster at Hoboken, N. J., is the most serious since the fire at the North German Lloyd line.

The fire started in the kitchen of the Smith family, and spread rapidly to the other rooms. The flames were so intense that the firemen could do little to save the property.

KETTELER A MARTYR.

Demanded That the Chinese Legations at Berlin be Held as Hostages.

London, July 3.—Repeating the story of renewed severe fighting at Tien Tsin, a special dispatch from Shanghai adds that reports are current that Vice-Admiral Seymour has been wounded.

London, July 3.—A dispatch from Shanghai says Chinese reports are current that two other foreign ministers were murdered the same day as Baron von Ketteler.

From the same source it is declared that the mission hospital at Moukden has been destroyed by the fire and that the Chinese Christians have been massacred. It is further asserted that the foreigners had to flee to Ching.

Washington, D. C., July 3.—Secretary Hay has received a cablegram from Consul-General Goussow at Shanghai, dated July 2, which is practically a repetition of the report of the mission hospital at Moukden.

The diplomats and missionaries are in the British legation under rifle fire. Can the command be located but they are not being used. The British, German and Italian legations are still standing.

Shanghai, July 3.—According to the latest news from Chinese sources, the legations are at such a distance from the city that the women who escaped the bullets are perishing of starvation.

London, July 3.—A special dispatch from Hong Kong says Li Hung Chang has requested a United States gunboat to take him to Tien Tsin.

Berlin, July 3.—All Germany stands dumfounded by the news from China. The murder of Baron von Ketteler is now almost a certainty. Secretary von Bismarck has given up his summer vacation and it is more than probable that the Emperor will not make his tour to the North Cape, as he does each summer.

Some doubters still say that the announcement of Ketteler's death is only a rumor, but the nearly universal opinion is that the news is true. The people demand a reparation for the blood of the German minister, and the newspapers compare the murder of the German minister at Peking with the murder of the French minister at Rastatt by Austrian cavalry in 1799, with all its dire consequences.

The German minister at Berlin is more than surprised by the terrible news, but he declares, of course, that the story has been concocted by the enemies of China.

Made Hero and Martyr.
The German papers, almost unanimously, are demanding a reparation, and declare Baron von Ketteler the newest German hero and martyr.

The Vossische Zeitung says: "Wherever the words 'German hero' and 'German martyr' are mentioned, the name of Baron von Ketteler will be mentioned."

The Nord Deutsche Allgemeine says: "If there is something that is able to console the family, friends and fellow citizens of the murdered minister, it is the feeling that he fell like a hero on the field of battle."

The Deutsche Tages Zeitung demands strictest reparation for the murder, but nothing more. Germany should not enter into a policy of expansion to avenge the murder.

Would Hold Hostages.
The Berlin Tagblatt declares the murder as a case of blood, and demands the arrest of the members of the Chinese legation in Berlin as hostages. The Tagblatt also mentions the fact that the first interpreter of the German legation at Peking is at present in Germany for a vacation and that the interpreter mentioned as wounded by the Chinese mob must be Second Interpreter H. Cordes.

The Kreuz Zeitung says that the murder ought to be avenged, but the Germans should have the particulars to the Emperor and his counselors.

The officials of the foreign office are nearly all of the opinion that this newest announcement of Ketteler's death is true, but say that the secretary of the German consulate at Chefoo may be in error. The foreign office is straining every nerve to bring help to the survivors of the Peking massacre, especially the Germans.

Urges Penalty for Slaying.
The press unanimously deprecates Baron von Ketteler's death. The Kreuz Zeitung says Germany cannot allow the murder to go unpunished, especially if the proof is furnished that the Chinese government has made common cause with the "Boysers" and adds that the Emperor and his advisers will find the correct way out of the present difficulties.

The confidence is general throughout the fatherland. The paper argues strongly for the sending of large German forces, since they are assured of bases of operation at Taku and Tien Tsin.

Will be Avenged.
Addressing the detachment of German marines which sailed from Wilhelmshaven for a Chinese yesterday the Emperor made a remarkable speech, during which he notified the world of Germany's intention to avenge the murder of Baron von Ketteler, the late minister of Germany, at Peking, and the missionaries, and to dictate terms to the Chinese from the palace at Peking. According to the Lokal Anzeiger his majesty spoke as follows:

"The German flag has been insulted and the German empire treated with contempt. This demands exemplary punishment and vengeance. Events have moved with frightful rapidity and have become profoundly grave and still graver. Since I called you to arms what I hoped to effect with the help of the marine infantry has now become a difficult task which can only be fulfilled with the help of the sorted ranks of all civilized states."

German Flag Planted in Peking.
It will not rest until the German flag, joined to those of the other powers, floats from the Chinese flag and until it has been planted on the walls of Peking to dictate peace to the Chinese. You will have to maintain good comradeship with all the other troops whom you will come in contact with over yonder. Russians, British and French, all alike, are fighting for one common cause—for civilization. We must bear in mind, too, something higher, namely, our religion and the defense and protection of our brethren, and those of whom stake their lives for the Saviour. The flag which here floats above you is under fire for the first time. See that you bring them back to me clean and stainless and without a spot. My thanks, my prayers and my confidence go with you."

London, July 3.—Mr. Broderick, under-secretary of state for foreign affairs, says that the allies are not advancing to the relief of Peking, this despite the message the imprisoned legations got.

War Without Delay.

War Without Delay.

WAR WITHOUT DELAY.

If Germany formally declares war on China, a very serious dispatch from Berlin this morning indicates as probable, once the Berlin government's ultimatum is established, that Russia, Japan and France will follow suit without delay.

England, it is believed, is likely to hold on for the present at least, while the United States is not expected to move unless literally dragged into the struggle.

In any event, China's future was never clearer. Even if the powers agree not to use any more force than is absolutely necessary to protect their own subjects, it seems to be as if the Chinese themselves would be left about the disintegration of their empire through international war.

Southern Provinces Secede.
All the provinces south of the Yellow River, where the viceroys and governors maintain friendly relations with the powers through the consuls, have been formally constituted into a confederacy with Nankin as the capital.

According to an Express cable from Shanghai, dated July 2, the Southern viceroys wholly disavow Prince Tuan's government. They have practically constituted an independent state, extending from the Hwang-Ho to British and French frontiers.

Worst Fears Entertained.
New York, July 3.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: "The tidings of the murder of the German minister have reached every foreign office in Europe, and the gravest views are entertained in diplomatic circles respecting the fate of the embassies. Many of the best-informed men admitted frankly that the fate of the embassies was sealed, and that the violent and unprovoked attack of the Chinese had temporarily triumphed."

The murder of the German minister was regarded as an ominous sign that the province was compensating, since he had rated the injuries of two missionaries as so high a price. If all the embassies had been wiped out there would be similar demands for damages and satisfaction, and unless Prince Tuan were driven from the stronghold of power there would be no practical method of assessing the costs and liabilities except annexation. All conclusions so confused a situation are premature and ill-considered, anything more than a generalized expression of opinion or title on the map, and the vast momentary under the sway of Prince Tuan, the worst enemy of foreigners and European and American civilization.

All Hope About Destroyed.
London, July 3.—2:30 p. m.—The fact that a report of the murder of the German minister at Peking is generally regarded as destroying almost the last vestige of hope for the unfortunate foreigners penned up in the Chinese capital. The worse is feared and the massacre of the Chinese in every man's mind. It is beginning to be felt here that the plausible fiction that no state of war exists is no longer tenable, and a fully-equipped, modern army, belonging to a single nationality, is necessary to deal with the situation. Instead of asserted expedition by a dozen nationalities, hence arises the demand that Japan shall be given a mandate to complete the work left undone in 1894, with proper security that she shall not be again squeezed out when the costly task is over.

OREGON IS FLOATED.

There is Now Some Hope that the American Battleship
May be Saved.

Shanghai, Monday, July 2.—The United States battleship Oregon, which ran ashore off the island of Hoo Kie, in the Miao Tsoo group, thirty-five miles northeast of Chefoo, June 28, has been floated and is expected to reach Port Arthur.

Washington, D. C., July 3.—Secretary Long this morning received the following cable from Lieut. A. L. Key, naval attaché at the United States legation at Tokio, Japan, in regard to the docking of the Oregon:

Tokio, July 3.—Secretary of the Navy, Washington, D. C.: Port Arthur (concord) 10:45 a. m. July 3. The Oregon, Japan navy department orders the use of either Kure or Yokosuka docks. Offers any assistance desired. Has ordered Ashikida from Chefoo to the Oregon. Have called White over to docks.

(Signed)
The naval officers are disappointed at the statement that the Oregon cannot be docked at Port Arthur as that place is only about sixty miles distant from where she struck. Nagasaki is 600 miles distant, but can be reached by the Oregon without venturing outside of the relatively smooth waters of the gulf of Chefoo. If the docks there are too small, the ship must push on to the Yokosuka docks, located just below Yokohama in the harbor. The Kure docks, offered to the Oregon, are too small for the battleship. It is supposed to be the Kure docks. The difficulty in the case of the Oregon is that she is fitted with bigges and docking berths, making her very broad in cross section at the bottom, and consequently unsuited to even large drydocks of the ordinary construction.

The Japanese vessel, Akitsushima, which Lieut. Key reported as going to the help of the Oregon, is the famous cruiser which covered herself with renown at the battle of Yalu.

Oregon Cannot Enter.
Washington, D. C., July 3.—A cablegram received at the navy department from Lieut. Key, dated Tokio, last night, says: "Russian dock at Port Arthur is too small for Oregon to enter."

The dispatch conveys the first news that Key is not at Peking, where he was naval attaché. If the Oregon is floated she will be docked at Nagasaki.

GLASS FACTORIES CLOSE.

Ten Thousand Employees Lay Aside
Work for Two Months.

Marion, Ind., July 3.—At midnight July 1 every glass worker in the glass belt laid down his tool and walked out of the glass factories and buildings that have housed them since last summer. The 1st of July is the time for the annual closing of the glass factories and the workers take a rest of two months during the warm weather of July and August. On September 1 they will again start for a run of ten months.

Seven window glass factories, four fruit-jar factories, three prescription-bottle factories, the 52 Evans McComb lamp glass factories and the Cannon glass works factory closed, leaving 10,000 men out. All the iron, steel and tinplate mills under the jurisdiction of the Amalgamated association also closed.

The Teutonic Disabled.
Liverpool, July 3.—The White Star line steamer Teutonic has canceled the sailing schedule for July from this port to New York, a flaw having been discovered in her stern frame.

BRYAN AND STEVENSON.

At the Democratic National convention held at Kansas City this week, William Jennings Bryan, of Lincoln, Nebraska, and Adlai Stevenson, of Chicago, were nominated for president and vice-president respectively. Mr. Bryan's nomination was unanimous, each delegation from every state in the union casting their full vote for him. Mr. Stevenson's nomination was also unanimous, but in his case one ballot was taken, but he leading with such a large majority his nomination was made unanimous after the first ballot. The first ballot for vice president stood as follows: Adlai Stevenson, 55%; David B. Hill, 20%; Charles A. Towne, 5%; scattering, 20%. Mr. Stevenson was vice president during Cleveland's last term and is considered the strongest candidate for that position in the Democratic party. That the convention has made wise choices in the selection of Bryan and Stevenson is generally conceded and we predict that the nominations will be confirmed by the people at the polls next November.

THE INDIA FAMINE.

The publishers of the Tribune are in receipt of circulars from the "Committee of One Hundred on India Famine Relief." This organization was formed about one month ago for the purpose of aiding in collecting money for the relief of the India Famine victims. The committee had no sooner been formed than it received great encouragement from different sources, the banks of New York offering themselves as agents for the receipt of contributions, while the telegraph companies have also agreed to transmit the committee's official business messages free of charge. The committee through the distribution of their circulars are rapidly extending this service and there is no doubt but that in a short time there will be acting agents of the committee in every city and town of any size in the United States. This is evident from the fact that in one month they have succeeded in sending circulars to twenty thousand newspapers and fifteen thousand banks throughout the country and the many replies they have received tell what is being accomplished. The cause is certainly a worthy one. The millions that are in danger of dying from famine and the thousands that have already gone make a picture too horrible for human contemplation, with nothing to eat and no prospect of getting anything the stricken humans have crawled together and died in withrows. The different relief societies have done much to alleviate the suffering, but these have been hampered by lack of funds in spite of the fact that an immense amount of money has been donated from civilized countries all over the world. The committee will send circulars showing the condition of affairs in the stricken districts with pictures of what has been done by different relief organizations. These are half tones made direct from photographs and five minutes study of them will do more toward convincing the uninformed than all that can be told in words. Contributions should be sent to Brown Brothers & Co., 59 Wall Street, New York.

Was it a Miracle?

"The marvellous cure of Mrs. Rena J. Stout of consumption has created intense excitement in Caumack, Ind.," writes Marion Stuart, a leading druggist of Muncie, Ind. She only weighed 90 pounds when her doctor in Yorktown said she must soon die. Then she began to use Dr. King's New Discovery and gained 37 pounds in weight and was completely cured." It has cured thousands of hopeless cases, and is positively guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung diseases. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Johnson & Hill Co.'s drug store.

Be glad you're poor and save your hats From wearing out with business cares, And feeding banks are going to bust, And who the deuce you're going to trust. Be glad you're poor, no relative Will criticize the time you're going to live. Don't always worry 'bout your lot Give thanks for what you have and not And be content with what you get. And let the wealthy bemoan and fret. Then when financial blizzards come And banks go tumbling round the fun And stocks and bonds go sailing, we'll Just thank you stars you didn't invest. Praise your big dollars at the store. And shake, and then be glad you're poor. —Geo. W. Stevens.

FORMER EDITOR PASSES AWAY.

After an illness extending over several months, had been in newspaper business many years in this city.

On Friday morning, July 6, 1900, at about four o'clock, Edward B. Brundage departed his life on this earth after a lingering illness extending over a year. The sickness that caused his demise was Bright's disease, and during the past six months he has been confined to the house almost continuously and much of the time to his bed. He is survived by his wife, Emma M., and two children, Dean aged nine, and Dorothy, aged six years.

That the citizens of Grand Rapids and vicinity were pained to hear of the death of Mr. Brundage goes without saying, as his years of newspaper work in this city had made him one of the best known men in this locality. Not only had he become well known but his business methods had been such that whoever came in contact with him became his friend. Being of a quiet, deep-thinking nature, a man with the courage of his convictions, one who was the same each day, his friends once made, were faithful to the end. During the long illness of Mr. Brundage he has been a patient sufferer, and although from the nature of his disease he had known that there was no hope of recovery, he has been cheerful through it all and whenever able has endeavored to cheer his family and friends by his hopeful talk. For many weeks past he has been kept alive by the administration of powerful medicines and has much of the time been in a semi-comatose state with intervals when his brain worked with all the activity of a well man. From the first of his sickness Mr. Brundage has endeavored to settle up his business affairs so that his widow and children would not suffer from any neglect of his, and through his efforts in this line everything has been left in as good shape as possible.

The bereaved family has the sympathy of all in their hour of sorrow and the Tribune unites to extend its condolence.

EDWARD B. BRUNDAGE.

Edward B. Brundage was born in Grand Rapids on the 17th day of May, 1863, and had lived in this city all his life. He was educated in the public schools of this city and in 1881 started in on the Grand Rapids Tribune which at that time was being published by his father, and soon assumed entire control of the paper, buying his father out two years later. In 1887 the Tribune and Enterprise were consolidated. Mr. Brundage forming one in the partnership with E. B. Rossier, who conducted the paper until 1891 when Mr. Rossier withdrew on account of ill health, leaving Mr. Brundage in sole charge. In 1892 Mr. Rossier sold his interest in the paper to W. H. Luehr and the paper was then conducted under the firm name of Luehr & Brundage. Mr. Luehr sold his interest in the paper to John N. Brundage, and the firm name was Brundage Bros. until sold to the present owners last May.

Mr. Brundage was appointed post master in 1894 and served his term of four years in that capacity. He was also alderman and served for many years on the school board. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge also of the Masonic fraternity, in both of which organizations he has held the highest offices.

In 1889 on the 30th of October Mr. Brundage was united in marriage to Miss Mary Emma Miller. Besides Mrs. Brundage and the two children he is survived by his mother, Harriet M. Brundage, Arthur A. and Frank B. of Dawson N. Dak., and John N. of Eureka S. D.

The funeral occurs on Sunday afternoon from the house at 2:30 and the First Congregational church at 3:00 o'clock, the Rev. B. J. H. Shaw conducting the service. The Knights of Pythias and Masonic lodges will attend in a body.

Under False Pretenses.

Sheriff M. Vincent returned the first of the week from Sheboygan whither he had gone with a warrant for the arrest of Martin Glines, who was wanted at Babcock for obtaining money under false pretenses. Glines is charged with giving a bill of sale of a cow which he did not own. He had his hearing before Justice J. J. O'Riley at Babcock yesterday and was bound over to appear in circuit court next October. He is now in the county jail awaiting trial.

RECOVERING FROM PARALYSIS.

Wm. H. Sullivan, a Well Known Horseman, Visits Our City.

Wm. H. Sullivan, of Hancock, well known to many of the people of the Wisconsin River Valley as a raiser of blooded horses, was a visitor in the city yesterday. For the past week Mr. Sullivan has been a guest of the Morgan and Stevens families at Nekoosa. It will be remembered that last fall while Mr. Sullivan was on a visit to Nekoosa he suffered a stroke of paralysis of the right side and for ten days was cared for at the home of Mr. Morgan, before taken to his home at Hancock, and his many friends along the valley will be pleased to learn that he is rapidly recovering the use of his limbs. Mr. Sullivan drove up from Hancock with a fine pair of his blooded horses and the writer enjoyed a ride with him about the city for a short time yesterday. Mr. Sullivan informed us that during his invalidism he disposed of most of his blooded stock, and since he has become able to be about again will eventually replenish his stock, as he is too much of a lover of fast horses to go out of the business entirely.

JUST ONE GIRL.

That is What Daly, the Druggist, is Pondering Over.

John E. Daly, the east side druggist not only sells but rents bicycles. On the 22nd day of last month Mr. Daly was approached by a fair young damsel with blonde hair and pearl white teeth who bargained with him for a wheel for a few hours spin about the city. She gave him her name but as he did not put it down in black and white he says it was either Koch or Kopp and the bicycle and the young lady are still missing and Mr. Daly would like some information leading to the recovery of one or both.

Goes to Yellowstone.

Guy Wood leaves on Monday for Stevens Point where he will join a party bound for the Yellowstone National park. This party will go in a special car to St. Paul where a train will be made up to go over the Northern Pacific to Livingston, from which place they will go to Cinnabar which is just on the edge of the park. At Cinnabar the party will go by team through the park, spending twenty-four days in sight seeing, and camping where night overtakes them. They will be provided with guides and a trapping outfit and all the paraphernalia that assists in making an outing a success. That the trip will be a pleasant one goes without saying, as the scenery is the finest in the world. The party will be in charge of Prof. Culver, of the Stevens Point normal. Mr. Culver is very familiar with the park, having at one time had charge of the U. S. geological survey in that section.

Doubtful Praise.

We are in receipt of a concise little book entitled The Newspaper Bine Book, published by Theo. Wiese, of Chicago. The volume, besides advertising the business of Mr. Wiese, purports to give the name of the best newspaper in each locality. It is evident that Theo. is behind the times for he hasn't even discovered that the two cities of Grand Rapids and Centralia have been consolidated into one municipality and as a consequence the names both of the papers published in this city as being the best in this locality. Under the circumstances we fail to fully appreciate the favor shown us, but hope that as the years roll by that there will be a time when Theo. will awake to a realization of the enormity of his error and by correcting it relieve the strain under which the nation must have been laboring.

New Bakery.

Aug. Peterick, of Galesville, who recently leased the Leneanette building on the east side arrived in the city the first of the week with his bakery outfit and has been busy the past week getting things in readiness for the opening. The exterior and the interior of the building have been fitted up and present a neat appearance. New plate glass windows have been put in, and the interior painted and a new stairway leading to the upper story. Mr. Peterick expects to open the new bakery some time next week. The second story has been fitted up for living apartments and will be occupied by Mr. Peterick and family.

The Street Work.

The macadamizing of Cranberry street has thus far reached French street and by this time next week it is expected that the work will have reached the Dixon Hotel corner. Along the line where the work of macadamizing has been completed sidewalks have been torn up and preparations are being made to lay new ones. As far as we have been able to learn all walks along this street, at least as far as the Dixon Hotel, will be built of brick. When the work is finished Grand Rapids can boast of as fine a looking business street as has any city along the Wisconsin Valley.

Woodmen Program.

Assisted in our last issue, on Sunday, July 8, the Woodmen of the World will unveil two monuments in Forest Hill cemetery. The parade will form in front of Woodmen hall at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and march to the cemetery, where the local lodge will be assisted by outside lodges in the ceremony of unveiling the monuments of John J. Benson and Herbert Naylor, deceased members of the order. Addresses will be made by State Deputy M. D. Nichols and J. W. Cochran, of this city.

THE GLORIOUS 4TH.

HOW IT WAS SPENT IN THIS CITY

A Very Quiet Day in Grand Rapids. Many of our Citizens go to Neighboring Towns.

Last Wednesday was probably as quiet a Fourth as this city has ever experienced. What little noise there was the small boy furnished with his stock of fire crackers and even the small boy was not as much in evidence as is usual on the nation's holiday.

About one hundred and fifty people went to Nekoosa to spend the day and they seem to have had as good a time down there as anywhere in this vicinity. Fifty people went to Wausau, where there were all kinds of amusement for the public, and then the governor was there and made a short speech. A heavy rain in the evening made it uncomfortable for the excursionists for a time. About one hundred and fifty took advantage of the excursion to Marshfield and spent the day quite enjoyably. A few went to Merrill to attend the gymnastics and bicycle race meet, where there were numerous celebrities to compete for the purses hung up by the projectors of the celebration. Taken altogether there must have been fully five hundred people out of town on that day, and the excessive heat made it uncomfortable for what was left to do much moving about.

The following young people enjoyed an outing and picnic dinner at Maen-nerchor park on the Fourth: Misses Eva Jones, Nellie Ward, Edith Nash, Mamie Daly, Vinnie White, Shirley Stoenen, Della Menier, Ethel Kelly, Viola Garrison, Maurine Johnson, Lona Johnson, Mabel McCamley, and Messrs. Clarence Searls, Ed. Daly, Robt. Morse, A. W. Bryant, Lee Love, Lawrence Nash, John Belanger, William Briere, W. E. Fayant, Johnny Jigger, Guy Wood, Frank Seib, Ed. Whittey and Chas. Pomainville.

THE ARPIN LUMBER CO.

Doing Business at Bruce, Wis.—The Following Article is taken from The Chippewa Times.

The magnitude of this concern, and the amount of work it has laid out for the coming summer, is known to but few people outside of this vicinity. The work is in charge of Mr. A. M. Arpin, a young man scarcely twenty-five years of age, but a man whose splendid business ability is appreciated by the entire community. He has already the confidence of every person with whom he does business, and is backed by Hon. Thomas J. McGrath, the well-known state-magistrate of Brown county. Mr. McGrath has charge of the railroad construction and will have about ten miles ready for the iron about the first of June. The heaviest loads to be laid and no expense is being spared to make the road and the best that can possibly be made. The road is destined for a point on Lake Superior and it is believed that it will reach Hayward, in Sawyer county, before snow falls. The mill of the company is located about two miles from Bruce on Devil Creek. It will be the largest hardwood mill in Northern Wisconsin. It is a substantial structure and the machinery is of the latest and best that can be found in the market. It will be ready for business about the first of June. About ten acres of land being cleared in the vicinity of the mill and a town of considerable size will spring up during the summer. The dwellings will be large for the families of the men employed in the mill. Mr. Arpin is working at present in constructing the road, about three hundred men. He is doing his own construction work. There will be employed in the mill and yards about one hundred and fifty men. The mill will be operated winter and summer. The road will pass through a fine belt of hardwood and some pine, and there is sufficient in sight to last the mill about twelve years.

New Catholic Church.

Last fall the members of the Polish Catholic faith bought eight lots near the furniture factory with the intention of erecting a church thereon in the near future. The work of hauling stone for the edifice was begun last week and although no plans have been secured as yet it is expected that the church will be erected this season. Heretofore the Rev. Mr. Miller, of Junction City has been holding services every second Sunday in the town of Sigel, but the establishment of a pastorate here this will be changed somewhat. A priest will be located in this city who will also attend to the Sigel parishioners.

New Clerk at Pittsville.

At the annual school meeting held at Pittsville last Thursday, J. Q. Severas, the old clerk who has stood by Prof. O. J. Kauffman the removed principal, received only 22 votes, while his opponent, C. E. Fero, received 109. By a similar vote the action of the majority of the board in removing Mr. Kauffman and hiring Mr. Jones as principal was approved, and the board instructed to pay Prof. Jones for past services.

War Far from Ended.

The Times, in its editorial leader this morning, says:

"It may be inferred from the arrival of the foreign military attaches at Cape Town that in their view the war is so far from over that military operations are not interesting enough to call for their study."

"At the same time a good deal of fight seems still to be left in the Boer command, which, though encircled by an immensely superior British force, continues to enjoy freedom of action over a considerable area."

"While that state of things endures it is perhaps too much to expect President Kruger to sue for peace. Indeed, it would seem from the cessation of reports concerning pourparlers pointing in that direction, that there was somewhat of a short time ago, that the Boer has recently been rather hardened than otherwise."

The following dispatch was received this afternoon from Lord Roberts, dated Pretoria, July 3: "Gen. Hunter reached Frankfort July 1 without opposition, and MacDonald joined him there yesterday. He found 1,200 men of the South African division of the Derby militia in the hospital. They have been well treated by the Boers."

"Medmen reports from Paardekraal on the Heilbron-Kroonstad road that he has captured the commandant, Dewet's scouts, two other prisoners and Andrew Wessels, the head of the Afrikaner band."

SAILED ON THE KAISER.

Former Senator Mitchell and Wife
Passengers on the Big Steamer
Which Escaped the Fire.

New York, July 3.—The blue and white house flag of the North German Lloyd line was flying over the Cunard pier today, when the big Kaiser Wilhelm Der Grosse, the only vessel of the fleet in port to escape the flames of Saturday last, sailed for Bremen. On the vessel, and on all the piers and shipping along the river, the flags were flying at half-mast. The piers were crowded with people, who watched the ship depart.

The steamer sailed at 10 a. m., with cabin and steerage full. In the first cabin there were 129, in the second 320 and in the steerage 240. About 340 survivors of the fire sailed on the Kaiser.

The officers of the wrecked vessel were accompanied, as they were, by the members of the crew who sailed in the steamer.

On the pier near the entrance were 274 steerage passengers, who were left behind. They could not sail, as the steerage was full. They will be taken care of by the line and will sail on other ships as soon as possible.

Levi P. Morton was a passenger on the Kaiser Wilhelm Der Grosse, which sailed today. With him sailed Mrs. Morton and the Misses Morton. Others who sailed on the vessel were Thomas E. Hendon, United States consul at Odesa, Russia; H. A. Leckheimer, Herman Joseph, Col. and Mrs. E. M. Knox, Prof. Koerner, James Macgregor, Franklyn MacVeach, former governor of John P. Mitchell, Mrs. E. F. Sargent, Prof. S. F. Shaw, Rev. I. F. Starnley and Garrett P. Servis.

Eclipse Affected Bicycle Races.

The solar eclipse proved a rather disastrous for the wheelmen of Atlanta. As in every other city within a visible distance, hundreds of persons viewed the eclipse through bits of smoked glass, and when they had seen enough, having no more use for the glass, threw it into the street. The result was that the repair shops were overrun with orders to repair burst tires.—Baltimore News.

At her own request made before death the funeral services over the body of Mrs. John D. Haskell were held under the trees in the orchard at the home place in Abilene, Kans. There she had played with her children, she said, and from there she wished to be carried to the grave.

Palmer Campbell warehouses..... 1,300,000

New York, July 2.—With a loss of less than 250 lives and the destruction of property valued at nearly $10,000,000, the entire pier system of the North German Lloyd Steamship company at Hoboken was destroyed Saturday. The magnificent ocean liners Main, Saale and Bremen were destroyed by the flames, and the pier system of the company was destroyed and the city was snatched from the blazing piers and shifted into midstream by the heaviest kind of work.

Capt. Mirrow Among the Lost.

Capt. P. Mirrow of the Saale is believed to have been burned to death in his ship. The Saale was a mass of flames from the time the fire broke out and was carried into the river, where the fireboats from New York and a score of tugs poured water into her and tried in vain to rescue the helpless sailors and longshoremen who could be seen at the water-line perched on the sides of the ship. The portholes are too small to admit of the passage of an ordinary-sized man's body.

The Bremen drifted across the river with her position in the slip about within 150 feet of the American fire pier, blazing fire and aft, before she got a line on her and towed her down to the flats off Liberty island.

The Main, a new boat, could not be moved from her position in the slip along side of pier 3, so rapid was the spread of the flames, and she was the center of a great mass of fire which burned around her and cut off the escape of those who had not jumped at the first alarm. The dead and injured lay in ashes or drowned and floating in the river or bay.

The property loss about $10,000,000. The property loss can simply be approximated at this time. None of the officials around the docks could give anything like a precise estimate of their losses and none was prepared to make a statement on this point. A conservative estimate made by a prominent fire underwriter, places the entire damage at less than $10,000,000.

The three docks of the North German Lloyd line are total losses, with all their contents. The Bremen is still smoldering, with many streams from the debris, burning continually on the debris. The pier of the Thingvalia line is totally wiped away, and an extension which had just been built on the Hamburg-American street was scorched badly.

The warehouses of Palmer Campbell, which are across the street from the North German Lloyd line docks, suffered greatly and a number of houses along the street were scorched badly.

The loss on the steamship properties and other companies is estimated tonight approximately as follows:

Details of the Damage.

The steamship Main of the North German Lloyd line cost $1,800,000 outside of the cargo, fitting and stores. The loss is placed at $1,300,000 for the vessel and about $500,000 for the fitting and stores and cargo that was aboard her. The steamship Bremen of the North German Lloyd line cost $1,250,000 and her fitting and cargo were valued at $300,000. The cargo and stores were entirely consumed, and the loss is estimated at $700,000. It was beached off Weehawken last night and still smoldering, apparently destroyed save her machinery.

The Saale, the steamship which will have the most terrible story of death to unfold when the divers go down in her, cost the North German Lloyd company $1,250,000 and the fitting and cargo were valued at $300,000. The Saale is beached off Weehawken and still burning. The damage to the vessel proper is placed at about $800,000.

Wilhelm Der Grosse Scorched.

The damage done to the Kaiser Wilhelm Der Grosse is estimated at $25,000. The three docks of the North German Lloyd line, which were burned to the water's edge, are estimated to have cost about $1,000,000. The docks were filled with merchandise just received from abroad and valued at $3,000,000.

The Thingvalia pier, which was entirely consumed, was valued at $500,000, containing the stores which were on it, which had just been completed and which had just been put in and which was destroyed in order to prevent the spread of the flames, was damaged to the extent of $15,000. This was the only loss they suffered, as the steamer Phoenix, contrary to reports, was not even scorched.

Barges and Canalboats Go.

Eight barges and eleven canalboats were either burned or sunk with their cargoes. About $125,000 worth of property was lost.

The Hoboken shore railroad had a number of cars burned and other property damaged. Loss $700.

Minor losses on floating property have been estimated at $200,000. The loss on the fire proper or set fire by burning driftwood, with amount to about $200,000.

The personal losses sustained by those aboard the steamships can simply be surmised, as there is no way of ascertaining this at the present time.

Many Bodies on the Saale.

When the burned and scuttled Saale is pumped out it is believed that the bodies of many people who perished below her main deck will be discovered. Some of those perished in the flames were alive when the steamship was towed to the Jersey flats just north of Ellis island.

Through the open headhills of port-holes the poor creatures appealed for help. One of the men, a young man, was sent in the hope of putting out the fire, which was raging in her upper works. The portholes being less than a foot in diameter, it was impossible to get them, and one after another the men inside were smothered by the smoke and flames. Cooper Healey of Ellis island spoke to several of the unfortunate, as did also the captain of the tugboat Union and Capt. J. F. Chapman. The latter said, describing a conversation through one of the portholes, "I saw one of the men lying on an open decklight on the Saale."

The imprisoned men was a stevedore who was known to me by sight. He told me there were thirty-eight men besides him, and one of the men was killed, as he was lying on the floor, and was killed by the flames. The poor fellow had a agonizing look on his face and seemingly realized that he and his companions were doomed to a horrible end. Giving up hope of rescue, the stevedore said to me that there were others caught between decks and a sked me to try to save them. A moment after he sank back into the roaring flames which soon shot out of the open portholes. We went back and forced a companionway. A man who sought to save the bodies with a blanket wrapped about him was unable to do so and was roasted to death."

Disastrous Wreck on a Passenger Train of the Montana Central

Laura Lueschel, Great Falls, leg broken.
William Smith, aged 7, Butte, head cut.
Mrs. John Cameron, arm and side hurt.
Mrs. J. C. Conductor, shoulder and hip dislocated.

The train left Butte at 8:50 last night and was on its way to Helena. It had made the climb up the Continental divide in safety and was running along at top speed on comparatively level ground, when the rails spread, ditching the baggage car, smoker, day coach and sleeper. The engine and one baggage car remained on the track. The cars were wrecked, and the passengers and the passengers who were not injured, or slightly so, climbed out through the windows. All the lights were extinguished and from different portions of the wreck came calls for help and groans and cries of the injured.

Conductor Zick, who was injured, made his way back to Woodville, five miles, and telegraphed to Butte for help. A special train with doctors and nurses was sent from Helena to this city and brought the injured, who were taken to the different hospitals.

Demand Made that the Chinese
Legations at Berlin be Held as Hostages.

London, July 3.—Repeating the story of renewed severe fighting at Tien Tsin, a special dispatch from Shanghai adds that reports are current that Vice-Admiral Seymour has been wounded.

London, July 3.—A dispatch from Shanghai says Chinese reports are current that two other foreign ministers were murdered the same day as Baron von Kettler.

From the same sources it is declared that the mission hospital at Moukden has been destroyed by fire and that the Chinese Christians have been massacred. It is further asserted that the foreigners had to flee to Newchwang.

Washington, D. C., July 3.—Secretary Hay has received a cablegram from Consul-General Goodnow at Shanghai, dated July 2, which is practically a condemnation of the report brought to Shanghai by a courier from Sir Robert Hart, inspector-general of customs. The dispatch says:

"The diplomats and missionaries are in the British legation under rifle fire. Cannon command the legation but they are not being used. The British, German and Italian legations are still standing."

Shanghai, July 3.—According to the latest Pekin news, from Chinese sources, the legations are at such extremities for lack of provisions that the women were forced to eat the bullets are perishing of starvation.

London, July 3.—A special dispatch from Hong Kong says Li Hung Chang has requested a United States gunboat to take him to Tien Tsin.

Berlin, July 3.—All Germany stands dumfounded by the news from China. The murder of Baron von Kettler is now almost a certainty. Secretary von Kettler has been up his summer vacation and it is more than probable that the Emperor will not make his tour to the North Cape, as he does each summer.

Some doubters still say that the announcement of Kettler's death is only a rumor, but the nearness of the Emperor's return to the capital and the fact that the Emperor will not make his tour to the North Cape, as he does each summer, are strong arguments in favor of the rumor.

The people demand a reparation for the blood of the German minister, and the newspapers compare the murder of the German minister at Pekin with the murder of the French minister at Tientsin by Austrian cavalry in 1799, with all its dire consequences.

The Chinese minister at Berlin is more than surprised by the terrible news, but he declares of course that the story has been concocted by the enemies of China.

Made Hero and Martyr.

The German papers, almost unanimously, are demanding a reparation for the murder of Baron von Kettler the newest German hero and martyr.

The Vossische Zeitung says: "Wherever the words 'German fidelity' and 'German hero' are mentioned, the name of Baron von Kettler will be mentioned, too."

The Nord Deutsche Allgemeine says: "If there is something that is able to console the family, friends and fellow citizens of the murdered minister, it is the feeling that he fell like a hero on the field of battle."

The Deutsche Tages Zeitung demands strictest reparation for the murder, but nothing more. Germany should not enter into a policy of expansion to avenge the murder.

Would Hold Hostages.

The Berlin Tageblatt declares the murder as a casus belli, and demands the arrest of the members of the Chinese legation in Berlin as hostages. The Tageblatt also mentions the fact that the first interpreters of the German legation at Pekin in Germany had a vacation and that the interpreter mentioned as wounded by the Chinese mob must be Second Interpreter H. Cordes.

The Kreuz Zeitung says that the murder was committed by the Chinese mob and that the German minister should leave the particulars to the Emperor and his chancellors.

The officials of the foreign office are nearly all of the opinion that this newest announcement of Kettler's death is true, but say that the secretary of the German consulate at Chefoo may be in error. The foreign office is straining every nerve to bring help to the survivors of the Pekin massacre, especially the Germans.

Urges Penalty for Slaying.

The press unanimously deprecates Baron von Kettler's death. The Kreuz Zeitung says Germany cannot allow the murder to go unpunished, especially if the proof is furnished that the Chinese government has made common cause with the Chinese mob and that the Emperor and his advisers will find the correct way out of the present difficulties.

The confidence is general throughout the factland. The paper argues strongly for the sending of large German forces, since they are assured of bases of operation at Taku and Tien Tsin.

Will be Avenged.

Addressing the detachment of German marines which sailed from Wilhelmshaven for China yesterday the Emperor made a remarkable speech, during which he notified the world of Germany's intention to avenge the murder of Baron von Kettler, the German minister at Pekin, and the missionaries, and to dictate terms to the Chinese from the palace at Berlin. According to the Lokal Anzeiger his majesty spoke as follows:

The German flag has been insulted and the German empire treated with contempt. This demands exemplary punishment and vengeance. Events have moved with frightful rapidity and have become profoundly grave and still graver. Since I have taken the oath of office, I have called you to arms when I hoped to effect with the help of the marine infantry what can only be fulfilled with the help of the serried ranks of all civilized states.

At last she stammered out, "If you were only an ordinary soldier, I would offer you money, as well as my thanks; but, as I think you are a gentleman, I offer you my thanks alone," and she bowed. The glorious Fourth was celebrated with due ceremony at Nekooa. A. J. Boyles acting as marshal of the day and under his management everything went smoothly. The races and parade, the music and the decorations were all good and the crowd was large, coming from all parts of the county.

MARSHFIELD ITEMS.

Marshfield had one of the greatest celebrations in the history of the city on the Fourth. The rain in the morning put the streets in bad condition for the industrial parade and also put a stop to the preparations for a time but as the weather gradually cleared up every one got to hustling again and at the appointed time all were in line for the big show. There were about sixty floats in line and many of them were really works of art. The crowd began to arrive at an early hour, there being special trains on the Wisconsin Central and Marshfield & South-Eastern and excursion rates on the other roads, and all brought in crowded trains. The idea of holding the events on the street in the afternoon was a very poor arrangement, as it was impossible to see what was happening on account of the crowd being allowed to rush about the streets without restraint, making it unpleasant for the participants in the events as well as the spectators. In the evening there were dances at the different halls.

Burglars entered the machine shop of Lang & Scherman on Monday night and took about four dollars out of the safe and also some papers. It had not been the custom to leave anything but some small change in the safe so there was no chance of the crooks making anything of a haul. The office of the Marshfield State Co. was also broken into the same night but nothing was taken.

COMMENCEMENT AT RUDOLPH.

Graduating Exercise in School District No. 8, Town of Rudolph.

School entertainments have been the order of the day for the last few weeks but the one given in District No. 8, Rudolph, June 29th carried off the palm. Besides the usual closing exercises attendant on the "last day," there was also a graduating exercise, the first ever held in that district.

The school room was beautifully decorated for the occasion, with pictures, burning flowers and ferns and a pleasing program consisting of songs, music, dialogues, and drills was rendered. The house was crowded to suffocation and many could not gain admittance. Those who came expected a treat in store for them and they were not disappointed.

The graduates were Misses Katie and Mary Lawrence. They wore red and white carnations, those being the class flowers. Their motto was, "Still achieving, still pursuing," white and blue were class colors. The first essay entitled, "School Days," in simple but touching words, was nicely spoken by Miss Mary. The valedictorian's essay on "Abraham Lincoln," in well chosen words, was rendered by Miss Katie Lawrence.

Diplomas were conferred and the exercises closed with a song, "Farewell Today," by the Misses Rastelle. After congratulations had been tendered the teacher, Miss Laura Provost, and her pupils, parents and friends wended their way home voting the entertainment highly creditable to the school and evidence of a hard working and painstaking teacher.

Is it Right for an Editor to Recommend Patent Medicines.

From St. Paul Valley News, Brevard, N. C.

It may be a question whether the editor of a newspaper has the right to recommend any of the various proprietary medicines which flood the market, yet as a preventive of suffering we feel it a duty to say good word for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. We have known and used this medicine in our family for twenty years and have always found it reliable. In many cases a dose of this remedy would save hours of suffering while a physician is waiting. We do not believe in depending implicitly on any medicine for a cure, but we do believe that if a bottle of Chamberlain's Diarrhoea Remedy were kept on hand and administered at the inception of an attack much suffering might be avoided and in many cases the presence of a physician would not be required. At least this has been our experience during the past twenty years. For sale by Johnson & Hill Co.

Uses of Lime and Charcoal.

"The heat and moisture of the summer months have a tendency to rust metals, mildew fabrics and cover all sorts of substances with mould," writes Maria Parloa of "The Care of the House in Summer," in the July Ladies' Home Journal. "Fermentation and putrefaction develop rapidly in vegetable and animal substances if they are not carefully watched. Lime and charcoal are two aids toward keeping the house sweet and dry, and the housekeeper should, if possible, provide herself with both of these materials. A barrel each of lime and charcoal in the cellar will tend to keep that part of the house dry and sweet. A bowl of lime in a damp closet will dry and sweeten it. A dish of charcoal in a closet or refrigerator will do much toward making these places sweet. The power of charcoal to absorb odors is much greater directly after it has been burned than when it has been exposed to the air for a length of time. Charcoal may be purified and used again and again by heating it to a red hot heat. The lime must be kept in a place where there is no chance of its getting wet, and not exposed to air."

"How is your wife? Has she lost her beauty? If so, Constipation, Indigestion, Sick Headache are the principle causes. Karl's Clover Root Tea has cured these ills for half a century. Price 25 cts. and 50 cts. Money refunded if results are not satisfactory. For sale by Centralia Drug Co.

White Man Turned Yellow.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty, of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was Yellow Jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful stomach and liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Only 50c. Sold by Johnson & Hill Co., druggist.

A Fastidious Bum.

A tramp called at the residence of A. C. Otto one afternoon this week and requested something to eat. Mrs. Otto complied with the request by supplying him with some victuals from the family supply. These did not suit the vagrant, however, and he crashed the stuff up and after indulging in some profanity, departed. He made himself numerous in other parts of the city and a complaint was made to the police, but the bum had got out of sight and could not be found.

Sick headaches, the curse of over-worked womanhood, are quickly and surely cured by Karl's Clover Root Tea the great blood purifier and tissue builder. Money refunded if not satisfactory. Price 25 cts. and 50 cts. at Centralia Drug Co.

VON KETTLER MURDERED.

Assassination of the German Minister to China Confirmed.

WAS HACKED TO PIECES

Belief in London that War is Now Inevitable—Situation is Most Desperate.

Washington, D. C., July 2.—The navy department has received the following cablegram from Admiral Kempt with-out date:

Chefoo—Secretary of Navy. Washington: Kempt from Peking reports legation is besieged; provisions nearly exhausted; situation desperate. German minister, Baron von Kettler, and his family were murdered by Chinese soldiers. American, Italian, Dutch legations burned. Twenty thousand Chinese soldiers entered Chefoo outside Peking. 3000 reported bound Tientsin still fighting at Tientsin. Communication with Tientsin by rail and river insecure. (Signed) Kempt.

Berlin, July 2.—A telegram from Dr. Lenz, the German consul at Chefoo, says: "Our minister at Peking was murdered June 18."

Privy Counciler Hamann was asked whether the course of Germany or that of the other powers toward China will be altered by the assassination of Baron von Kettler. He replied that he was unable to answer the question because Count von Buelow, the minister of foreign affairs, had not yet received a telegram from Emperor William II. Wilhelms-haven, before the alarming news was received here. He supposed Count von Buelow will forego his vacation and remain in Berlin. Herr Hamann was also asked if the Chinese minister would be given his passport, but the privy councilor did not reply.

Other Ministers in Peril. Paris, July 2.—In the Chamber of Deputies today, M. Delcasse, the minister of foreign affairs, announced that he had received a dispatch today from the French consul at Shanghai stating that the director of Chinese railroads had received the news that the minister of foreign affairs had been assassinated at Peking and that the other ministers were in peril.

M. Delcasse added that he hoped the latter news would prove untrue. France, thus far, he continued, had been weakly represented among the international forces, but troops from France were arriving on the scene and the French admiral would soon have 2000 men, while the arrival of the other troops on their way, France, within a month, will have a force proportionate to her position in China.

Prince Tuan a Usurper. London, July 2.—A special dispatch from Shanghai containing another version of Yung Lu's message is that it was an appeal to the cabinet, and that he was not a usurper. Yung Lu is further said to have declared that he and the Dowager Empress had been seeking to protect the Europeans and legations, but that Prince Tuan usurped the imperial power June 20, since when the soldiers had refused to obey Yung Lu. The latter is also said to have stated that Tuan personally ordered the attack on the foreigners at Peking.

French Consulate Shelled. Paris, July 2.—3 p. m.—The French consul at Tien Tsin is besieged. Several shells were fired into the town yesterday evening, one falling on the French consulate and seriously damaging the building without injury to the residents. The secretary of the consulate, who was acting as road surveyor for the town, and two French sailors were killed at the town hall.

Italian Sailors Killed. Rome, July 2.—The commander of the Italian warship Elba cables from Taku that the Italian detachment at Tien Tsin had a lieutenant and six sailors killed during the recent fighting there.

Trying to Save the Oregon. Washington, D. C., July 2.—The following cablegram has been received at the navy department from Admiral Kempt dated Chefoo, July 1: "The Oregon is in a dangerous position: about 35 degrees north latitude, 20 degrees 40 minutes east longitude. Have sent to her assistance three naval vessels. It is reported that there is war in one compartment. The commander of the Oregon has requested assistance, a Japanese man-of-war having boarded vessel."

Vast Army Required. New York, July 2.—A dispatch to the Herald from Chefoo says: "All the shipping and energies of the naval and military commanders at Taku are now concentrated on the relief of the foreigners. No one has been sent off from the outside world since June 9. The allied forces now at Taku and Tientsin are awaiting reinforcements before moving on Peking, as it is estimated that 25,000 troops are required."

The tenor of June 19 ordered the ministers to leave Peking next day. They refused to go and throw the responsibility for their safety on the powers who threatened to destroy the imperial tombs if injury befalls the legations. The foreign force in Peking for the protection of the legations numbers 425 men, of whom 26 are Americans with a Colt's gun and three machine guns. Other officers are Capt. Hill and Dr. I. M. Lippitt.

Great Distress in Peking. A runner from Peking says that all were in great distress there and eagerly looking for news. Those of Admiral Seymour's force were heartily pitied. The British ship rescued Alacry arrived at Chefoo this morning. She had seven men wounded from Wei-Hai-Wei.

There was an incident that here on Saturday evening over cable troubles. All is quiet today. In the men of the naval brigade at Taku have been ordered to their ships and replaced by troops.

Trust is spreading and the missionaries are making their way to the coast from all the northern provinces. A steamer sent out by the American and other consuls at Chefoo arrived here Saturday with twenty-three American, comprising thirty-three American, twenty-nine English, ten Canadian and one Chinese.

The names of the Americans follow: Dr. Crawford and wife; Rev. Mr. Bosworth and wife; Rev. Mr. Dwyer, wife and infant; Rev. Mr. Patrick, wife and two children; Miss Burroughs, M. D.; Rev. Mr. Blodgett and wife; Rev. Mr. Hendon, wife and infant; Rev. Mr. Fitch, wife and children; Dr. Farley and wife; Miss Edna Parks, M. D.; Margaret Chaffault. All these are from Shan Tung and Honan. Others are coming to the coast, for whom another steamer has been sent.

Advised to Free for Safety. The American consul at Chefoo and the commander of the American gunboat Nashville urge all American citizens to seize the present opportunity to leave Chefoo on merchant steamers. The Japanese have offered Japanese transports to convey Americans to Japan. At Wei Hsein in the American Presbyterian and other mission premises were entirely destroyed on June 25, but the missionaries escaped.

British refugees arriving at Chefoo are being conveyed to Wei Hai Wei by the British first-class cruiser Terrible.

There is trouble at Moukden. The Manchuria railway has been damaged and the buildings burned and the Russians are sending troops.

CRUEL MURDER.

German Minister Shot and His Body Hacked to Pieces.

London, July 2.—The worst fears as to what has been happening in Peking since the capital was cut off from communication with the outside world have been realized. The dispatches agree that the German minister, Baron von Kettler, was murdered in the streets of Peking on June 18 and that all the legations were burned but those of England, France and Germany.

There was a general massacre of the servants employed by the foreigners, and all the members of the diplomatic body sought refuge in the British legation. Though they were reported safe up to last Tuesday morning their situation was most desperate.

Cruel Murder of Von Kettler.

It is apparent Von Kettler's murder was cruel in the extreme. He was shot in the back and his body hacked to pieces. He was dragged from his horse by soldiers and hanged to a post.

Immediately afterwards the American, Italian, Russian, Japanese and two other legations were attacked and burned, followed by a general massacre of servants.

Believe War is Sure to Come.

A majority of the London papers can draw but the one deduction that these facts mean war with China. It is officially admitted and recognized by all the powers that whether the partition of China follows largely depends on how nearly the powers can come to an agreement when peace is restored.

Jealousies May Arise.

Up to the present the powers appear to have acted as harmoniously as could be expected, and perhaps more so, but Admiral Bruce's summary of the European forces now on the scene is pretty sure to arouse jealousies, and, in fact, has done so already in some quarters. Attention is called to the fact that the Russian contingent numbers the combined contingents of all other powers, including the United States. Also that the Japanese contingent is equal to the combined contingents of France, England, Germany, France and America.

German Engineers in a Fight.

Tsin-Tsao, July 2.—The German engineers on the Shantung railroad have been forced to abandon their work owing to disturbances between Kiu-Ho and Wei-Hsin. The engineers, who were employed by the Chinese, were ordered to reach a place of safety after a running fight, in which many Chinese were killed.

AQUINO SURRENDERED.

A Prominent Insurgent Leader, with Rifles and Ammunition, Gives Himself Up.

Washington, D. C., July 2.—Three cablegrams were received by the adjutant-general from Gen. MacArthur at Manila. The first and most important was received at the war department this morning, as follows: "Gen. Aquino, prominent leader of insurgent forces, surrendered unconditionally to Lieut. John J. O'Connell, with Macabebes scouts, on June 29, together with sixty-four rifles and ammunition."

Gen. MacArthur also cables that Gen. Ricarte, leader of the threatened uprising in Manila during this year, recently very active, was captured July 1 by native forces in the mountains. In another message Gen. MacArthur said that the remains of Lieut. Paul Draper, twenty-second infantry, were recovered June 30, and were buried at San Isidro, Luzon. Draper was killed several days ago during an engagement at the Nagapuri river in northern Luzon when he and his men were ambushed by the insurgents.

The third message stated that the transport Warren sailed today for Manila yesterday with a battalion of the Twenty-third United States infantry bound for San Francisco. The men in this battalion have nearly completed their terms of enlistment or are being transferred to other active service. The departure of the transport Warren for Manila at this juncture is somewhat significant. She is one of the largest troopships in the service and is fitted upon to carry a full regiment with arms and equipment. China in case of necessity. The other large transport remaining at Manila available for that service is the Sien-na, which is being chartered from San Francisco. There are two other smaller transports, the Pennsylvania and Indiana, and three freight ships in the Philippine fleet. Total carrying capacity of the entire available transport fleet now at Manila is about 4500 men, including the Warren. It was over 6000.

Ten Thousand Under Miners in Alabama Quit Work.

Birmingham, Ala., July 2.—All the miners in Alabama, about 10,000 in number, suspended work today pending the settlement of the wage dispute between them and the operators. The old wage contract expired yesterday and the miners demand a 40 per cent. raise and other concessions. The operators refused this and offered to renew the old contract, which is an advance of 40 to 70 per cent. over the old one in effect prior to July 1, 1909. This offer was rejected and a referendum is being held at the various mining camps for the purpose of further instructing the delegates to the state miners' convention.

COURT FINDS FOR WIFE.

William Evans of Chippewa Falls was Careless About Having Policy Transferred.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., July 2.—[Special.]—After waiting for the full limit of time allotted for the disposition of the case of Mary Evans vs. Katharine Evans, Judge Vinje of the circuit court has decided against the plaintiff. The case is a peculiar one and has been watched with interest.

In 1898 William Evans became a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and had a policy for $2000 issued in favor of his mother, Mrs. Mary Evans. About a year later Evans was married to Katharine Bloomhart, and it was his intention to have the insurance policy transferred to his wife. He applied to the secretary of the Brotherhood and a new policy, properly filed out, was submitted to him for his signature. Evans seemed to have been negligent in signing the new policy and at the termination of three months he was killed, and the question of law developed upon the right of the mother of the widow to inherit the policy was raised. The Brotherhood transferred the policy with order for payment on the decision of the court, to the court. Yesterday the limit for appeal was reached and the widow was duly transferred to the widow.

WORKED A BIG SWINDLE.

Forged Time Checks Passed in Northern Wisconsin.

MANY ARE VICTIMIZED.

Perpetrators of Gigantic Fraud Have Not Been Caught—They Have Probably Escaped.

Marquette, Wis., July 2.—[Special.]—Officers have just discovered that between $1000 and $1500 worth of fraudulent Holmes & Son's time checks have been passed in the vicinity of Pembine, the headquarters of the firm, and in the surrounding country. This amount has already turned up, and later developments may increase the amount to several thousand dollars.

The checks were passed in Pembine, Iron Mountain, Crystal Falls, Marinette, Menominee and other places.

There is little prospect of capturing the culprits. They have probably fled from this part of the country, as their work was done some time ago. The perpetrators of the crime had duplicated time checks printed. They were an exact copy of the original. They then forged the names, time, etc.

Holmes & Son's time checks have in the past been as good as government currency and people to whom they were presented usually gave them only a casual inspection. For that reason the fraud was easily perpetrated. The worthless checks are turning up every day and the swindle will be a big one.

Waldo of Oshkosh, and his assistant, Mr. Luther, exercised poor management in handling the trains and that Engineer Cottrell of the excursion train was negligent in his duty in not applying his air brakes quickly and effectively enough after answering the danger signal of the flagman; also that Engineer Rockefeller and Hazelbauer and Conductor Cottrell of the freight train violated the company's block signal rules in taking their trains out on the main track south of the south switch at Depere, but from the testimony it was found that they used precaution to protect their train by sending out a flagman. The jury is charged for sending out inexperienced men in charge of the excursion train.

ONLY A LITTLE RAIN.

Fond du Lac County People Are Disappointed by the Small Downpour.

Fond du Lac, Wis., July 2.—[Special.]—What was hoped to be the commencement of a couple of days of steady rain started this morning, but after a gentle fall of a couple of hours the skies began clearing and the faces of Fond du Lac people again took on their no-rain expression, one compared to which the bicycle face is a beauty. In spite of the lack of rain, however, grain fields in the county are looking well, a short straw being the only drawback. Pasture grass is up and the question of tiding over the stock is a serious one. A great number of farmers have already been obliged to dispose of their stock at a fearful sacrifice. Pastures are being burned and a scarcity of hay gives rise to conditions that will make it difficult for many more to hold their stock much longer. Much relief is afforded by heavy rains. Irrigation water is generally sown on fields from which poor weather garden stuffs have been harvested.

HE EXPECTED DEATH.

Lorenzo Hathaway of Grand Rapids Made All Arrangements for His Funeral.

Grand Rapids, Wis., July 2.—[Special.]—The funeral of Lorenzo Hathaway, who died suddenly in a barber chair here Saturday, was held today. Mr. Hathaway was told by the doctors about a year ago that he could not live longer than a year, or two years at the most. He said it was that the case he was going to buy himself a monument and fix up a lot in the cemetery. He did as he said he would and his lot was fixed up in good order and his monument was a monument with the name "Hathaway" across the face of it.

As landlord of the Witter hotel there was not a better-known or better-liked hotel man in the state of Wisconsin. He was very popular among the traveling fraternity. Before Mr. Hathaway went into the hotel business he was a first-class river pilot and followed that occupation for years. He was a well-known character in river circles from Merrill to Prairie du Chien, and no one knew the "rocks and rills" between these points better than he did.

Mr. Hathaway died just as he wished and said he would like to die. He always said he wanted to die "quicker than you could say Jack Robinson." He was joking and talking merrily with Judge C. M. Welch, who was in the barber shop, when suddenly, without warning, he dropped dead. He is survived by his wife, one son, Oscar, and a daughter, Mrs. John Arpin, wife of the well-known lumberman of this city and Bruce, Wis.

BRYAN AND STEVENSON.

At the Democratic National convention held at Kansas City this week, William Jennings Bryan of Lincoln, Nebraska, and Adlai Stevenson of Chicago, were nominated for president and vice-president respectively. Mr. Bryan's nomination was unanimous, each delegation from every state in the union casting their full vote for him. Mr. Stevenson's nomination was also unanimous, but in his case one ballot was taken, but he leading with such a large majority his nomination was made unanimous after the first ballot. The first ballot for vice president stood as follows: Adlai Stevenson, 59; David B. Hill, 20; Charles A. Towne, 89; scattering, 37. Mr. Stevenson was vice president during Cleveland's last term and is considered the strongest candidate for that position in the Democratic party. That the convention has made wise choices in the selection of Bryan and Stevenson is generally conceded and we predict that the nominations will be confirmed by the people at the polls next November.

THE INDIA FAMINE.

The publishers of the Tribune are in receipt of circulars from the "Committee of One Hundred on India Famine Relief." This organization was formed about one month ago for the purpose of aiding in collecting money for the relief of the India Famine victims. The committee had no sooner been formed than it received great encouragement from different sources. The banks of New York offering themselves as agents for the receipt of contributions, while the telegraph companies have also agreed to transmit the committee's official business messages free of charge. The committee through the distribution of their circulars are rapidly extending this service and there is no doubt but that in a short time there will be acting agents of the committee in every city and town of any size in the United States. This is evident from the fact that in one month they have succeeded in sending circulars to twenty thousand newspapers and fifteen thousand banks throughout the country and the many replies they have received tell what is being accomplished. The cause is certainly a worthy one. The millions that are in danger of dying from famine and the thousands that have already gone make a picture too horrible for human contemplation, with nothing to eat and no prospect of getting anything the stricken humans have crawled together and died in widows. The different relief societies have done much to alleviate the suffering, but these have been hampered by lack of funds in spite of the fact that an immense amount of money has been donated from civilized countries all over the world. The committee will send circulars showing the condition of affairs in the stricken districts with pictures of what has been done by different relief organizations. These are half tones made direct from photographs and five minutes study of them will do more toward convincing the untrained than all that can be told in words. Contributions should be sent to Brown Brothers & Co., 59 Wall Street, New York.

Was it a Miracle?

"The marvellous cure of Mrs. Rena J. Stout of consumption has created intense excitement in Cammack, Ind.," writes Marion Stuart, a leading druggist of Muncie, Ind. It has cured thousands of hopeless cases, and is positively guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung diseases. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Johnson & Hill Co.'s drug store.

BE GLAD YOU'RE POOR.

Be glad you're poor, the clothes you wear won't do you more harm than the fact that you're poor. Be thankful that your good corn cake will never give you pain or ache. Be glad you're poor and save your hairs from wearing out with business cares. And fearing that you're going to bust, and who the deuce you're going to trust. Be glad you're poor, no one will relative will grudge the time you're going to live. Don't always worry about your lot. Give thanks for what you have, don't get And be content with what you get. And at the little things and fret. Then when financial straits come And banks go tight, be sure to have fun And stocks and bonds and what not. Just thank your stars you don't meet. From your neighbors at the store. And success—and then tell of you're poor. —Geo. W. Stevens
